

Hassin Saleh

hassin-saleh@hotmail.com

Biography

Hassin Saleh is a pharmacist based in Mississauga, Ontario, holding a Doctor of Pharmacy from the University of Waterloo, where he also completed his Honours Bachelor of Science. He brings diverse experience across specialty pharmacy, primary care, and community practice. He has worked in biologics and autoimmune care at NKS Health and in mental health at Braxia Health, supporting patients with complex conditions. He also contributed to interdisciplinary care at North Peel Family Health Team, working alongside physicians and allied health professionals. Currently practicing at Hauser's Pharmacy, Hassin is involved in long-term care, special needs pharmacy, compounding, and central fill operations, offering a well-rounded perspective on patient care and the evolving role of pharmacists.